

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO

In re: Adam Aircraft Industries, Inc.
Debtor(s)

Case No.: 08-11751-MER
Chapter: 7

Notice of Deficiency
Failure to File Statement of Financial Affairs and/or Schedules, Corporate Resolution, and/or Verification of Creditor Matrix
And Notice of U. S. Trustee's Standing Motion to Dismiss

This Notice refers to the following document filed with the court on : 2/15/2008
By : M. Frances Cetrulo

This Notice refers to the following missing documents which were NOT filed with the court and your case will be dismissed if you do not file the missing document(s):

- Other: Summary of Schedules
Declaration re: Schedules
- Statement of financial affairs - all
- Schedules - all

After a bankruptcy case is filed, debtor(s) must complete two steps whenever debtor(s) file any of the following with the Court: (a) Statement of Financial Affairs, (b) any Schedule(s), (c) payroll advices or a verified statement that the advices do not exist, (d) Statement of Current Monthly Income, (e) Certification of Credit Counseling and/or (f) creditors address matrix verification. (These steps are required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 102(c) and Transitional Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1.)

1. Serve or mail a copy of such Statement of Financial Affairs, Schedule(s), Certification or document(s) on any trustee serving in the case, and
2. File with the Court a Certificate of Service, signed by you as being true and correct, which lists: (a) the trustee's name and address used by you to mail or serve the documents to the trustee, and (b) a list of the names of the documents that you served or mailed to any trustee serving in the case.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Court cannot, or may not be able to administer your case effectively because of the missing document(s). If you do not timely file the missing documents, this case will be dismissed. (Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 505(a)(3), the United States Trustee's Standing Motion to Dismiss Deficient Case now applies to this deficient case. The rules and statutes that explain the document filing requirements and support dismissal when those requirements are not met are found in: (a) Interim Bankruptcy Rule 1007, (b) Transitional Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-1, (c) Local Bankruptcy Rule 505(a)(3) and/or (d) 11 U.S.C. § 521. Under this Notice, your case may be dismissed no sooner than in fifteen days from the date that you filed the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 707(a)(3), 1112(b), 1208(c) or 1307(c), as applicable, without any additional notice or a hearing. Moreover, the failure to timely file the missing documents will result in the dismissal of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 521.)*

It appears that the debtor has filed a petition which is not accompanied by the statement of financial affairs and schedules required by 11 U.S.C. 521(1). Pursuant to Fed.R.Bankr.P. 1007(c), the debtor shall file said statement and schedules within 15 days after filing the petition. The deficiency cure date appears below.

Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 102(c), in any case in which the debtor files a statement, schedule or creditors address matrix after the receipt of a notice of deficiency issued by the clerk pursuant to local Bankruptcy Rule 505(a), the debtor shall serve a copy of such statement, list or schedule on the United States Trustee and any chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 trustee serving in the case, and shall file an appropriate Certificate of Service as evidence thereof.
